Good morning, I.S 201! This is Nicole from class 851 here for Talk a Lot Tuesday on behalf of the S.E.A.L. Team.

The International Day of Neutrality is a yearly event that highlights the importance of peaceful, friendly, and beneficial relationships between countries. It raises awareness about how neutrality is important in keeping peace.

Why is the International Day of Neutrality important, you might ask? Well, this special day encourages people to discuss about the concept of neutrality and how that would impact the world. The International Day of Neutrality promotes the idea that world peace may be achievable as well as leads to talk about how to work together towards that goal.

So, how can we celebrate the International Day of Neutrality? There are many ways we can do so. First, to understand more about this topic, we need to go back in time. History might not be everyone's favorite subject in school, but it is important to know about it so we can prevent mistakes from repeating. Another way to celebrate today is to practice mediation. Mediation is the action of stepping in a conflict to resolve the issue. Today, be a mediator and strive to keep peace in a problem that you or someone you know is experiencing.

Thank you for listening and have a Truce and Treaty Tuesday!

SEAL Team pledge:

We are the Dyker S.E.A.L. Team

Positivity is our dream

We teach it every day

To help others live the optimistic way

We learn to control our emotions and feelings

So, we always have effective social dealings

No stone left unturned; no person left behind

Every member of our team has the power to be kind

We spread kindness to our friends, families, and those who need a smile

When facing hardships and adversity, the S.E.A.L. Team goes the extra mile
