Good morning, I.S. 201! I'm Katie Chan from 831, and I'm here this Thoughtful Thursday on behalf of the S.E.A.L Team.

Today is a special day, it's Inclusion Day! This is a day to remind ourselves that our school community is stronger when everyone feels welcome, supported, and included. Whether it's in the classroom, at lunch, or in after-school activities, let's make an extra effort to reach out to someone new or show kindness to those around us. As Helen Keller said, "Alone we can do so little; together we can do so much." Let's work together to create an environment where everyone feels they belong.

And speaking of special days, today is also our secretary's birthday! A huge shoutout and happy birthday to Ms. Judy Guido! She does so much to keep everything running smoothly here, and just like inclusion, she helps make sure no one is left out. Be sure to show her some birthday love today!

Thanks for listening and have a Together Thursday 😊
