April 20,2023

Good morning everyone! This is Irene Qiu from class 731, and I'm here to share some exciting news on this Thoughtful Thursday, on behalf of the Seal team.

Today is a very special day as we celebrate Volunteer Recognition Day, which falls annually on April 20th. This day is dedicated to honoring and thanking volunteers who selflessly give their time, energy, and skills to help the community.

Volunteering is an essential part of our society, and it is important to recognize and appreciate the volunteers who work tirelessly to make the world a better place. They bring positive change, provide essential services, and promote community involvement and inclusivity.

We all have something to offer, and volunteering not only benefits those who receive our help, but it also enriches our own lives by fostering a sense of purpose and belonging. As Mahatma Gandhi once said, "The best way to find yourself is to lose yourself in the service of others."

So, on this Volunteer Recognition Day, let's take a moment to show our gratitude to the volunteers in our lives and communities. Thank them for their hard work, dedication, and selflessness, and let's remember the importance of volunteering and giving back to our community.

Thank you for listening, and have a Time to Volunteer Thursday ☺
